Dear Dr. He:

Thank you for submitting manuscript 2022047, entitled “Time Dependent Shrinkage of Time-Varying Parameter Regression Models.” We would like to invite you to revise and resubmit your manuscript.

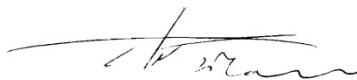

Attached please find two reports on your paper.

The referees, the associate editor and I are positively inclined toward this contribution. The referees have raised a number of questions and issues that require careful response, and suitable revisions.

If all the comments are addressed in the next revision, I am optimistic that a final version can appear in Econometric Reviews.

I look forward to your revised paper.

With best regards,
